

The List of the Nigerian Key Contacts on Issue that spoke to Jim Puckett of Earth Economics/BAN during their Investigation on the “Digital Dump”

Mr. John Oboro
Assistant General Secretary
Computer and Allied Products Dealers Association of Nigeria (CAPDAN)
Lagos, Nigeria
Tel: +234 1 720 2685, 08033134514, 08028944865
E-mail: omasboro@yahoo.com

(stated to BAN that 75% of the imports are junk)

Mr. Shina Badaru
Founder/Editor, TechnologyTimes Website & Magazine
Lagos, Nigeria
Tel: +234 1 720 3922
Cell: +234 803 400 5029

(stated that the way for Nigeria to develop IT was from indigenous electronics industry not from importing second hand computers)

Mr. Oladele Osibanjo
Professor of Chemistry and Director of the Basel Convention Regional Coordinating Centre for Africa for Training and Technology
University of Ibadan
Ibadan, Nigeria
Tel: +234 (0)803-301-3378; 234-2-8102198
E-mail: osibanjo@baselnigeria.org, osibanjo@skannet.com

(stated that the Nigeria story was another ticking toxic time bomb and that it should be controlled by the Basel Convention)

Mrs. Olakitan Ogungbuyi
Program Officer of the Basel Convention Regional Coordinating Centre
Seconded from: Federal Ministry of the Environment
Chief Environmental Scientist
University of Ibadan
Tel: +234 08033205818
E-mail: kitanogungbuyi@yahoo.com, kitanogungbuyi@hotmail.com

(Agreed that currently Nigeria is not controlling this problem and they need to investigate it)

Mr. Ovie Oghenekaro
General Manager, Warehouse

Ibru Merchandise 33 Ltd
Lagos, Nigeria
Tel: +234 1 5870438, 08033071520
E-mail: jm33@infoweb.abs.net

(Stated that he believed that about 500 containers of used computers a month are coming into Nigeria from abroad)

Dr. Oludayo Dada
Department of Pollution Control and Environment Health
Federal Ministry of Environment
Abuja, Nigeria
Tel: (+234) 80 3311 8237/ (+234 9) 413 6317
Fax: (+234 9) 523 4014/4119
Email: droadada@yahoo.co.uk
oludayoodada@yahoo.com

(Works for government, is very concerned about the issue)